

Big crowd at charity races

The crowd was out to enjoy the first day of spring at the Mai-Wel charity race day held at Cessnock Jockey Club last Tuesday.

Six members of the Tony Cant team joined in the festivities, which were held to raise money for the charity.

Tony Cant Maitland marketing manager Cristen Cable said the company was "honoured to be supporting this event".

"As Tony Cant Real Estate has grown with Maitland we believe it is important to give back to this community that we live in and love," she said.

"The day drew good crowds for a good cause. It was an excellent day all around where we enjoyed beautiful horses, food and company and local businesses put their best feet forward for a local charity."

The Tony Cant Real Estate Handicap of 1150m saw 12 horses race for a win. The winning horse Admirah Belle is owned by the Lanfranchi family and was ridden by jockey Patrick Ferris.
