

Mai-Wel race day fundraiser

The first day of spring will start with cheers as the race begins to raise money at the Mai-Wel Charity Race Day.

Tony Cant Real Estate, one of the largest Maitland-based real estate agencies, is the real estate sponsor for the fundraiser.

Marketing manager Cristen Cable said the company was "honoured to be supporting this event".

The Mai-Wel Group Race day will be at Cessnock Racecourse (Maitland's closest racecourse) from noon on Tuesday, September 1. There will be several races with all sponsorship and donations going to Mai-Wel.

Since it was established in 1978, Tony Cant Real Estate has donated and sponsored more than $100,000 to the Maitland community.

Tony Cant Real Estate is taking a team of six staff to the fundraising event.

The race day is open for the public to attend at no cost.
