

GOOD TIMES: Tony Cant Real Estate staff Julie Hillias (left) and Sophie Abela (right) kick up their heels with Justin Hodges (back) of Ridgeview and John Worth of Blue Suede Rockers. Picture by KRISTY HODGSON 230211KH008

Kick up your heels to help flood victims

A team of Maitland real estate agents is promoting a rocking good time to raise money for the flood victims of Queensland and Victoria.

Retro lovers with a passion for dancing are encouraged to let the good times roll at Tony Cant Real Estate's rock n roll themed night on Saturday.

Blue Suede Rockers, a four-piece line-up specialising in the music of 1950s and 1960s will get Lorn Park Bowling Club all shook up with the hip swinging tunes of Buddy Holly, Carl Perkins, Jerry Lee Lewis, Chuck Berry, Bill Hayley and Elvis.

There will also be games and a charity auction, with all proceeds from the night to go to the Salvation Army and the Red Cross for distribution.

"Living in a city that has had its share of flood experiences strikes a chord that our turn might be just around the corner," organiser Sophie Abela, who along with co-worker Julie Hillias will host the night.

"Local business houses have been generous with donations for our prizes, which is fantastic and adds to the genuine feel of a community coming together to help others."

Ridgeview at Pokolbin has donated a two-night stay for two people in one of their luxurious self-contained cottages as the major prize for the charity auction.

All the fun starts at 7pm. Tickets cost $25 per person or $60 per family and there are discounts for seniors.

For bookings, contact Sophie Abela or Julie Hillias on 49336299 or after hours on 0417 047 553. Tickets will also be available at the door.