A family fun day has showcased the attractions at Waterhaven

ENTERTAINMENT and food and drink were high on the agenda last month when Hallmarc hosted a family fun day to showcase the lifestyle on offer to residents of the Waterhaven estate.

The event gave more than 1000 visitors an opportunity to see first-hand the result of years of planning and construction work poured into parkland reserves, man-made wetlands and the architecturally designed bridge across Skeleton Creek.

On hand also were the Werribee Little Athletics squad and Western Bulldogs stars Adam Cooney and Brian Lake to sign autographs.

Some of the city's leading builders were also present offering advice and information on the latest in contemporary home designs.

Located about 20 kilometres from the CBD, Waterhaven stands in a convenient spot with an array of community services nearby.

The Panorama Precinct is the latest exclusive release offering a selection of waterfront blocks with views of some of the 18 hectares of parks and wetlands.

Limited opportunities to buy remain in this release with sizes ranging from 400-500 square metres to 600-1270 square metres.

Residents at Waterhaven can enjoy a location that is moments away from the new Point Cook Town Centre, childcare facilities and schools.

The centrepiece of the estate is the carefully planned 18 hectares of open space and attractive parkland.
